Discussion

1. Faculty and Staff: Lionheart is fully staff for the fall.

2. Professional Development

There will be 2 ½ days of professional development in June after the end of school. Sexual Harassment Training will be included in August professional development. New teachers will start one week early (8/11) to learn about Lionheart. Fiona Byrne will lead that. Administrative training will occur Wed/Thurs of that week to go over the new administrative program. Week 2 will consist of Literacy Essentials and security training. Week 3 will focus on math and classroom-specific curriculum

3. Assessment: Principal Dobbs will provide a brief update at the June regular board meeting

4. Curriculum: Algebra textbooks have been sourced. Not as expensive as initially expected, but still costly. Considering new Latin and writing curricula.

Action Item: Trustee Sweet will explore whether curriculum changes need to be approved by the board.

5. Accountability Plan: Notice from the state for 3-yr review received. This links directly to the accountability plan.

6. Upcoming:

- Art Show
- 6th/7th grade hiking trip, weather permitting
- Summer packets will be created for all grades so that students can maintain skills. Tutoring may be available over the summer.

Action Item: ED Harner will check to see if parents can use IXL at home over the summer

There are no pressing issues that are anticipated over the summer. Next meeting to be determined, either in September or if an issue arises.

Lori Finn moved to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Sarah Paradis. Meeting adjourned at 5:34 pm.

Respectfully submitted by: Lori Finn
